

the Midwest Alcoholism Research Center presents

The Ninth Annual
Guze Symposium on Alcoholism

Translating Basic Science Findings
to Guide Prevention Efforts Across the Lifespan

February 19, 2009

Eric P. Newman Education Center

Special Presentation DVD collection

Live video recording of the lecture series with panel discussion from the question-and-answer sessions

Volume 1: Morning session

- Michael T. Lynskey, PhD
“Is Early Substance Use Bad News?”
- Michael T. Bardo, PhD
“Neural Mechanisms Involved in Individual Differences in Drug Abuse Vulnerability: Implications for Prevention”
- Joan Kaufman, PhD
“Understanding Child Abuse: From Neurobiology to Social Policy”

Volume 2: Afternoon session

- Caryn Lerman, PhD
“Nicotine Dependence Treatment: A Translational Research Approach”
- Gene H. Brody, PhD
“A Translational Model for Prevention of Substance Use Disorders”

The Ninth Annual
Guze Symposium on Alcoholism

Thursday, February 19, 2009

“Translating Basic Science Findings
to Guide Prevention Efforts Across the Lifespan”

DVD 2-Disc Volume Collection                      $20.00

Order Form

First Name	Middle	Last Name	Professional Degree
Organization	Department	Title
Street Address	City	State	Zip Code
Phone	Email

Please include a check or money order payable to:      Washington University.

Return Order      Deb Hughes
form to:            Midwest Alcoholism Research Center
Washington University School of Medicine
Department of Psychiatry - CB 8134
4560 Clayton Ave, Ste 1000
St. Louis, MO 63110

Phone: (314) 286-2244
Email: GuzeSymp@psychiatry.wustl.edu
Website: www.alcoholdependence.org

Please allow 2 weeks for delivery.